

Gray Counseling Services
138 Thunderbird Dr.
Harvest, Al. 35749

"A Mind Is A Terrible Thing To Waste"

Name _____

Compatibility Inventory

What is your spending philosophy?

- A. I am a spender. Why have money in the bank when you can't lead a good life
- B. I am a saver – regardless of what I make, I always set some aside
- C. I put a little aside but I like to splurge on a little something every once in a while
- D. I save up as much as I can, but I don't spend on bigger purchases

Money is:

- A. Important when I don't have it
- B. A means to comfort in life
- C. Something that helps me get the things I want

When it comes to control in the relationship I like:

- A. To be in charge of decision making
- B. To be in charge of important decisions and my partner take care of the less important decisions
- C. To share all decision making with my partner
- D. To divide all the decision making responsibilities
- E. To rely on my partner for all decision making

When meeting a friend I am usually:

- A. Early
- B. On time
- C. A few minutes late
- D. 15 minutes late

When it comes to order I am:

- A. A neat freak
- B. I like things neat and orderly
- C. Complete slob

I like to:

- A. Have things totally mapped out in advanced
- B. Have some things planned but with some wiggle room
- C. Have general plans with the possibility of change
- D. Go with the flow, I hate sticking to a plan.

My friends would tell you:

- A. I am honest to my detriment
- B. I am generally honest
- C. I sometimes stretch the truth
- D. Not to believe a word I say