KEEPING UP APPEARANCES

Much is done in an effort to make a great impression and to "look good" in the eyes of another. This might include something done to improve the outward appearance, such as (for women) wearing jewelry or makeup or (for men) wearing a suit or dressing up. Some will exercise more to keep up such appearances.

Some things we do to impress our peers may harm us in the long run, such as smoking or drinking. Even tanning can cause serious skin problems years down the road.

Much can be done to better our appearances before men, but what about God? God can see our inward appearance, and no matter what we might try to do on Earth, God knows us through and through - much better than we know ourselves! While makeup may hide physical blemishes, there is nothing we can do to hide the blemishes of our inner being - our soul. If we have sin in our lives, God knows it, and nothing can be done to hide it.

The only way for us to improve our image before God is to truly change - to truly dedicate our lives to faithfulness as never before. "...that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service... be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God" (Romans 12:1-2, NKJV). God wants everything within us dedicated to His service.

How important is our image to God? Our eternity depends on it! If we fail to remain faithful in this life, we miss out on the promise of an eternity with God in Heaven. While our earthly image is important, our spiritual appearance is of much greater value.

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION AND ANSWER

Which of King David's wives was jealous and embarrassed as he danced before the Ark of the Covenant?

ANSWER: (B) Michal

*In 2 Samuel 6 a boisterous procession, led by King
 David, carried the sacred Ark of the Covenant (representing God's presence) as it triumphantly re-entered Jerusalem. David had abandoned it 90 days previous, and its return home was filled with great expressions of exuberant praise, worship, and dancing before God. David danced before the Lord with such enthusiasm that he literally danced out of his robe. David's wife Michal watched the parade from her lofty window, embarrassed, jealous, and angered by her husband's lack of kingly decorum.*
