

STUDY QUESTIONS: ROMANS 14

1. What is the Christian's obligation to the "weak"?
2. What is meant by "weak" as used in Chapter 14?
3. What illustration does Paul give to show the attitudes of the strong and the weak?
4. What attitude should the strong and weak have toward each other?
5. What explanation does Paul give as to why the strong and weak should not judge each other?
6. What additional illustration does Paul give showing the attitude of the strong and of the weak?
7. In the matter of a esteeming days, was the strong sincere? Was the weak sincere?
8. Christians belong to whom?
9. Christ is Lord of whom?
10. What does Paul say (in verses 10 through 12) about the judgment?
11. Is there a right kind of judging which brethren owe to each other?
12. Is there a certain kind of meat "unclean" of itself?
13. The "clean" becomes "unclean" to whom?
14. According to verse 15 brotherly love will preclude what?
15. What does verse 17 show regarding the nature of the kingdom?
16. Is there any restriction on Christian liberty? If so, what is it?
17. What obligation is stressed in verse 19?
18. What points does Paul repeat in verse 20?
19. Verses 22 and 23 emphasize what thought?
20. Does having a clear conscience guarantee that one is right?

*These questions, taken in part from Romans: God's Plan for Man's Righteousness, by Roy C. Deaver, Biblical Notes Publications, Austin, TX 1992, should be studied carefully and used to help prepare for weekly class.